

The FCC has to get with the program in this country. The recent censorship and limitation issues being placed on media is out of control. I strongly support satellite radio. I value the XM radio service including the national traffic information. I am not sure what the FCC is trying to protect here other than special interests.